TDLR continues to send Christmas cards to their licensees after their Elves dropped by to pay them of a visit about their business practices of which constitutes violations of the Texas Towing, Storage & Booting Act. It does not take a rocket scientist to obey the regulations and rules set forth in State Law, but unfortunately, some licensees believe they can skirt the law and get away with it until they take advantage of a consumer who files the almighty TDLR complaints.

The latest round of fines issued between Nov 23rd and Dec 3rd are as follows:
